

VACANCY 0001: Air-Conditioning and Refrigeration Service Technician

Climate Services is a young, up and coming Company in the HVACR sector servicing in the Republic of Nauru. We pride our self on delivering high quality work. We consistently maintain strong communication between our teams and our clients.

We are looking for experienced Refrigeration/Air Conditioning technician to join a fast paced growing company and be a part of a young and hardworking team. This position would be suited for someone who has driven and dedication to be a part of this industry.

Our business services include the installation, service, maintenance and repairs of split system, ducted air conditioning systems, Ventilation systems and Refrigeration systems for both the residential and commercial sectors.

The key responsibilities of this primarily service based role includes:

- Attending service calls
- Servicing on Commercial Refrigeration and Air-conditioning units
- Maintenance HVAC systems
- Fault Finding and diagnostics
- Commissioning & install of new systems
- Training and Development of apprentices
- Strong installation knowledge of residential and commercial AC systems
- Effectively communicate with customers where required and to support other trades people in maximizing customer satisfaction
- Be able to carry out PPM on various sites and equipment
- The ability to work unsupervised, self-motivated and be a team member
- Willing to work overtime when needed

Qualifications & experience:

- High level customer focus, engagement skills and responsiveness to customer request.
- Driver's license, all other required licenses.
- Certificate III Refrigeration & Air Conditioning.

Employer Benefits

- Motor Vehicle provided
- Uniform and PPE
- Great wage and weekly pay
- Great working environment
- Opportunities for progression to running the service department as a manager.

Please email our recruitment team on admin@csgrouppnauru.com. Also attach cover letter, resume and certificates with other supporting documents. Vacancy Reference number: 0001.